Ever diplomatic. I am committed to finishing of course but quite a dis. And I do want to take them to OECD which I hope won't be an issue. I think you, tala and I need to meet next week. What's your schedule?

I think Shawn must have prepared the acknowledgement slide, which would have been an unintentional oversight. Gino would never intentionally leave you off. As for Tala, I am sure the vibe is because Yvette Collazo, the OPPT Director, left the Agency last week. Her last day in the office was Wednesday, and she was officially gone on Friday.

It can't be an over sight. I got a weird vibe from Tala last week too. What is going on?

Yes, it was more of an evolution of where the draft category started (HMW), and then he discussed how the molecular weight criterion was removed as the category evolved.

I can understand the lack of motivation. Both of the categories were only possible because of you!

I had to miss most of the middle but he started talking about HMW?

I'll get back on this after this week. Not very motivated after that lack of acknowledgment. Especially after I made so many cross references in mine.

Gino's talk acknowledged you, Tala and William for the PSLT. Really? I am feeling like OCSPP is kicking me to the curb now that you are gone.
